1) Equal Employment Opportunity Commission v. Alliant Techsystems Inc. Filed in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota (October 6, 2011). The EEOC instituted the action pursuant to Section 706(f)(1) and (3) of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(f)(1) and (3) ("Title VII"), and Section 102 of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. § 1981a. The charging party applied for employment with ATK at its facility in Edina, MN, but was not hired for the position. The EEOC alleged that ATK's decision to not hire the charging party was discriminatory and based on her race. The charging party is an African American. ATK settled the case through a monetary settlement.

2) In April 2012, an individual filed a qui tam action against ATK in a case captioned as United States ex rel. Jeffrey Campbell v. Alliant Techsystems Inc., in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. The case was brought pursuant to the qui tam provisions of the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. 3730(b). The case alleged that ATK knowingly shipped multiple units of ammunition containing defective rounds. In 2013, the U.S. Government intervened in the case to effectuate a settlement. Thereafter, the parties entered into a monetary settlement, and the case was dismissed.
