

JAMES M. HAGUE

EXPERIENCE

The Nature Conservancy
Senior Water Policy Advisor

Arlington, VA
August 2016 – present

- Primary freshwater policy advisor for the world's largest conservation NGO coordinating the activities of 50 state chapters, policy and practice professionals across the country, and other operating units within The Nature Conservancy around water infrastructure modernization, aquatic connectivity, drought resilience, hydropower improvements, and stormwater and wastewater management.

Theodore Roosevelt Conservation Partnership
Director, Center for Water Resources

Washington, D.C.
May 2013 – August 2016

- Founding director of the Center for Water Resources at the Theodore Roosevelt Conservation Partnership (TRCP), a partnership of 56 groups representing leading hunting, fishing, and conservation organizations dedicated to guaranteeing all Americans quality places to hunt and fish.

Office of Senator Mark Udall (D-CO)
Legislative Assistant

Washington, D.C.
April 2009 – May 2013

- Primary policy advisor for water, natural resources, environment, science, technology, and aerospace issues.

U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Science
Staff Assistant, Subcommittee on Research

Washington, D.C.
April 2003 – July 2005

- Supported committee oversight of the National Science Foundation, STEM education, and other research priorities under the chairmanship of Rep. Sherwood Boehlert (R-NY).

EDUCATION

University of Colorado
Master of Science, Environmental Studies

Boulder, CO
August 2007

University of Maryland
Master of Science, Astronomy

College Park, MD
December 2002

University of North Carolina
Bachelor of Science, Physics

Chapel Hill, NC
May 2000